NATIONALIST CHINESE BEAM PROPAGANDA TO MOSLEMS;
COMMUNISTS TRANSLATE MAO'S WRITINGS INTO ARABIC

PAI URGES MOSLEMS TO OPPOSE COMMUNISM -- Hong Kong Shih-pao, 25 Sep 50

Taihoku, 24 September (Chung-yang) -- Pai Ch'ung-hsi, president of the China Moslems Association in Taihoku, spoke over the Voice of Justice Radio Station today and urged all Moslems in China to oppose Communism.

The occasion was the Korban holiday, the sacrificial festival, which the association has renamed the Chung-hsiao-chieh, literally, "loyalty and filial piety day." The name was changed to impress on the Chinese Moslems the significance of the day. According to the Koran, God ordered Abraham to offer his son, Ishmael, as a sacrifice. Abraham, being loyal to God, did as he was ordered. God was greatly impressed by Abraham's loyalty and told him that he could offer a lamb in place of his son.

Pai, who beamed his talk to more than 30 million Moslems on the Chinese mainland, stated that today the Moslems in China, besides recognizing the fidelity of Abraham and filial piety of Ishmael as an example of the highest virtue of mankind, should unite with the more than 300 million Moslems in other countries to oppose Communism. In China, Moslems should unite to oppose Soviet encroachment, resist and eliminate the CCP which is betraying the people, destroying truth and virtue, and which is antireligious. He continued, "We should create the spirit of loyalty and filial piety in China as practiced by Abraham and Ishmael. We need to be loyal to the country and filial toward our parents. Moslems in China should unite with the Moslems in the rest of the world to crush the dictatorial gang of ruffians and restore freedom of religion everywhere."

Pai also added that the joint meeting of the board and executive committee of the association passed a resolution on 23 September 1950 to send a telegram to Entezam, the Iranian delegate and the present chairman of the United Nations Assembly, and ask him to unite all delegates from Moslem countries to support the lawful Chinese KMT government and oppose the CCP, the tool of Soviet imperialism which is plotting to enslave mankind.
